

“Commit Yourself”

Asylum Choir is a Classic|Hard Rock|Metal Show band originally formed in 1989 hailing from Mercer|Burlington County New Jersey. Drawing younger & older crowds, the original singer & guitarist reformed with their current drummer joining shortly after the onset of the project & a new bass player.

The band is a well seasoned, road tested & tight, extremely efficient streamlined group of professionals with years of experience and knowledge. They are committed to a very high standard of professionalism , musicianship, & live entertainment interaction for every audience & venue, be it large or small. The music is classic rock with some exceptions & all with a dynamic edge that commands attention from even the most demanding music enthusiasts & club goers. The show invites listeners from the intense rockers to the light - hearted party people to join in together as a part of the show to make the experience as memorable and enjoyable as possible.

Asylum Choir can & will do all in their power to make a night worth remembering for every venue & audience.
